Carol Salva
is a current Refugee Teacher on Special Assignment in Houston, Texas. She is also an educational consultant with Seidlitz Education. Carol was named Spring Branch ISD’s District Teacher of the Year in 2009 and is a certified Abydos Writing trainer as well as a former Bilingual and Special Education teacher. Carol specializes in using research-based strategies to teach grade-level content to unschooled/under-schooled language learners. Carol Salva holds a Masters degree in Education Administration with a Principal Certification.

Michelle Yzquierdo
is a sought-after trainer and presenter, thanks to her extensive experience and engaging presentation style. Dr. Yzquierdo has worked as a teacher, instructional specialist and educational program specialist. Her doctoral research focused on the factors contributing to the success of high school immigrant students and she continues researching and presenting on this important topic. As the child of an immigrant, the teacher of numerous immigrant ELLs, and a researcher, Dr. Yzquierdo has seen first-hand what it takes to support ELLs and immigrant ELLs so they may see success.
